

COMPLAINTS CONCERNING SCHOOL PERSONNEL

P1440

Complaints concerning school personnel will be referred to the administrative official in charge of the operation or person.

The building principals will have immediate jurisdiction over any complaint concerning situations arising in their buildings. The building principal will refer other complaints to the proper person.

If a satisfactory solution is not reached, the complainant may appeal to the Superintendent of Schools. If a satisfactory solution is still not reached, the complainant may appeal to the Board of Education.
