

STAFF CONDUCT

P9600

Staff members serve as important role models for school children, who are often influenced by the conduct displayed during the school day by their teachers, administrators, bus drivers, classroom aides, and other employees with whom they have contact. Staff members are expected to demonstrate a high level of ethical behavior and a respect for human dignity and the law as they perform their school functions.

Reviewed June 1999

Renumbered from P4400 – June 2015